COMMUNICATION FROM THE CHAIR

The Speaker, (Mr. Fred Lengees): Hon. Members, I have the following communications to make. Today I take this opportunity to welcome all of you to this Special Sitting with great humility and congratulate you all for making to the third County Assembly of Samburu. We believe that a leader's worth is measured by his or her response to call of duty on behalf of the people of Samburu.

Hon. Members there is no doubt that you are great leaders by you being here today. Further, may I take this early chance, being the first Special Sitting after you have elected me as the third Speaker of this Assembly, to once again convey my sincere gratitude to all of you for having great confidence in me that saw me elected to spearhead the intentions and objectives of this Assembly.

I believe your trust in me today together with the commitment of the Assembly mandates, herald brighter days ahead in your core business of ensuring quality services to the Mwananchi of Samburu. I will be looking upon your experience to help me to steer the institution rightfully. Hon. Members, I acknowledge the political diversity in the Assembly and I am confident that we can be united by the ideals we hold rather than be divided by our differences. Accordingly, Hon. Members I am looking forward to harness and marshal the political adversity to the advantage of the Samburu people who has great expectations in this institution.

I, therefore, wish to invite all of you to join me in this mission. I trust the end results will amaze many in respect to our key role of representation, oversight and legislation. Hon. Members, I welcome and congratulate you all, I thank you.

Hon. Members, the time being 10 o'clock and there being no other business this Assembly now adjourns Sine Die.
